

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

DURING this week a place that is proving very attractive to many ladies in the Woman's Exchange, Third and Franklin Streets, where there is displayed in the parlors everything to please artistic fancy and satisfy judicious taste and judgment. Lingerie waists of every variety, from the strictly tailored to the flimsy blouse, trimmed with hand-embroidered lace and ruffles, along with the daintiest of hand-made neckwear—stockings, multi ties, butterfly bows and jabots—all the showpieces wherein are grouped also all kinds of pretty conceits, especially appropriate for the spring festival season, or for Easter gifts. Many of these can be had for very small sums. Embroidery and crochet work in napery and table appointments are very beautiful. In the housekeeping department of the Exchange, there is a variety that will meet every demand. Orders for desserts should be given early, and visitors are advised to turn their steps Exchangeward without further delay.

Russell-Hammond.
Among the interesting social happenings of yesterday was the wedding of Miss Ella Gordon Hammond to Dr. Hugh Greeway Russell, celebrated at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, by the Rev. Dr. J. Gray McAllister, of Hampden-Sidney, a brother-in-law of the groom.

The ceremony was performed at Rosedale on Brook Road, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hammond, and was followed by a very handsome reception at 6 P. M. The house was canvassed throughout in white, the halls and drawing-rooms being decorated with palms and Easter lilies. Pink roses and sweetpeas rendered the dining-room especially pretty by contrast. Thillow's orchestra played a beautiful selection of airs during the reception.

Miss Elizabeth Hammond, the bride's sister and maid of honor, was prettily gowned in an imported costume of green and violet silk voile. She carried a loose cluster of purple orchids. Mr. David R. Merrill was best man.

The bride came in with her maid of honor. She wore white messaline, trimmed with duchesse lace, a tulle veil and a pearl and diamond sunburst. Her flowers were white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. L. W. Russell, of Winchester, the groom's father, Miss Emma Louise Russell and Dr. J. Gray McAllister, of Hampden-Sidney, other members of his family.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell will go North for their wedding trip, and will make their home, when they return, in Richmond, where Dr. Russell is practicing his profession.

To be Tried for the Murder of Spoon April 17th—Everole to Hospital.

The Everole case was tried to-day, and insanity was proved to the satisfaction of the jury, and the prisoner committed to the hospital.

Everole, who is very dispirited, received a severe blow on the head about a year ago while attempting to enter the house of a colored man in the night time, which fractured his skull, and had an important bearing on his case, resulting as above.

Pendleton's case is set for the 27th, and his defense will be insanity.

NEGRO WING WILL NOT FALL IN LINE

Meeting in Petersburg Adopts Resolutions Severely Condemning White Republicans.

MR. PLUMMER FOR JUSTICE

Strongly Indorsed for Office Soon to Be Filled—Young Pastor Weds in Norfolk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., April 14.—The negro wing of the Republican party in Petersburg, which distinctly is not flapping in unison with the white limb of that organization, held a meeting of its city committee last night, with L. J. Allen as chairman, and adopted four resolutions, the first of which is to the effect that "the vote of the Republican State convention in Lynchburg on the Henrico case is an unmistakable evidence of the disposition of the party, as at present constituted and managed, to exclude the negro from participation in party councils and to tolerate his presence in the party only upon the most humiliating conditions." Other resolutions condemn the action of the white Republican meeting here on the day before the district convention in naming a chairman with undue powers, and in naming a city committee as a continuance of boss-ship, and go on to say "that in self-respect and self-defense we proceed to perfect the organization set up by us on April 6, 1908, in protest against local mismanagement and usurpation, and declare that we will not further affiliate or co-operate with the present City White party, misnamed Republicans, either in Petersburg or elsewhere in the State of Virginia." The colored politicians also resolved that a committee on correspondence, consisting of three members of their city committee, be appointed to communicate with the colored members of the Republican party in the Fourth District and elsewhere in Virginia to secure their co-operation.

For Police Justice.
Mr. Charles E. Plummer, of the law firm of McIlwaine & Plummer, has been indorsed by the lawyers of Petersburg for the appointment to the office of Police Justice, which is to be made by Judge Mullen, of the Hustings Court, for a term of four years from July 1st next, in accordance with the resolution just passed by the City Council and Board of Aldermen. As previously stated in The Times-Dispatch, the new officer will conduct the court over which the Mayor now presides.

Y., and wife of Alexander Hamilton, was the subject.

Richards, pastor of the Washington Street Christian Church, who left on the train with the bride couple to attend his own wedding, which took place in Norfolk at 5 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Mary Blanche De Shazor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. TWO MORE ARRESTS MADE.
Man and Two Women Held in Connection with Wood Murder.

MEHERRIN, VA., April 14.—Morton Tillman and two of John Stokes's alias John Epps's wife's sisters, were arrested yesterday near the scene of the Wood tragedy and given a preliminary hearing before Justice Cox, and committed to jail, where they will be held for further developments. A negro answering the description of John Stokes was arrested in Richmond yesterday, and officers left immediately to identify him, but were unable to do so. Stokes is the party that the authorities are so anxious to apprehend, and it is believed that with his arrest the horrible tragedy will be cleared up to a great extent.

Beasley, the first negro arrested, made his home with Stokes, and it was from this building that the two watches were traced, as also three or four pairs of shoes carried by Mr. Wood in his stock. Tillman said he was with Stokes on the night of this tragedy, and for this reason was held. Later he denied this. Efforts are being made to keep those arrested apart until an examination of each can be had.

Arthur Holland, aged nineteen, said Copeland bought his whiskey.

The cases were heard by Mayor John B. Norfleet and Justice J. F. Deberry, sitting jointly.

PITTSYLVANIA COURT TO MEET.
Many Whiskey Cases to Be Considered. Horse Breaks Its Neck.

CHATHAM, VA., April 14.—Much of the time of the special term of Pittsylvania county Circuit Court, which convenes here on Monday next, will be taken up in disposing of whiskey cases. To begin with, sixty witnesses have been sworn on the stand, and it is to appear before the grand jury against illicit whiskey dealers. Sixteen have given notice of applying for licenses at the term, all of which will be contested, and the contest promises to be very interesting. The anti-liquor people will be on hand and from present indications the number of licenses that will be granted will be much smaller than one year ago.

James C. Howey, a young farmer of the county, near Totes, while plowing last week, left his horse standing to get a drink of water. The horse commenced to graze and Mr. Howey yelled at him, at which the animal took fright and ran, falling into a nearby ditch and breaking its neck. The horse had just been bought a few days before at a cost of $200.

Nervous?

We think there is no medicine so suitable for tired, nervous women, as Wine of Cardui.

It is a tonic, and especially a tonic for women, because it acts on the womanly organs and carries renewed strength to the weakest part of the system.

In addition to its real, medicinal merit, Cardui is also worthy of confidence, because it is a simple, natural, plant extract, free from all deleterious ingredients, non-intoxicating and every bottle guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act.
